Government Ayurvedic and Unani College Committee,
Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that it is absolutely necessary to supply some uniforms, davalis and dachos to some of the poor and ward-boys as shown in the list to keep up the decency and dignity of the institution especially when In-Patient-wards are opened.

The probable cost of the same may be met out of the amount shown under the head of "Hospital-General Staff" in the prospective expenditure list which is drawn up for 3 months according to the sanctioned scale, since the employees who come under that head may be appointed only from the 15th June to be read from the 1st June onwards.

The statement of dress etc., and the statement showing the required savings are herein enclosed for the favour of reference and kind consideration.

I have the honor to be,
Sir
Your most obedient servant,
